2017

This date marks the completion of important biblical times by these events 120, 100, 70, 50 years

1897-1947 = 50 years 1917-1967 = 50 years 1967-2017 = 50 years

The dates of the 1897 with Hertz , 1917 with Balfour and 1947 with Resolution 181 exactly fulfill the promises that God made to Israel many years ago mentioned in the Bible :

Jeremiah 16:14-15 ... Look, the days are coming, Yahweh declares, when people will no longer say, "As Yahweh lives who brought the Israelites out of Egypt!" but, "As Yahweh lives who brought the Israelites back from the land of the north and all the countries to which he had driven them." I shall bring them back to the very soil I gave their ancestors.'

Amos 9:14-15 I shall restore the fortunes of my people Israel; they will rebuild the ruined cities and live in them, they will plant vineyards and drink their wine, they will lay out gardens and eat their produce. And I shall plant them in their own soil and they will never be uprooted again from the country which I have given them, declares Yahweh, your God.

Micah 4:6-7 ... That day -- declares Yahweh- I shall gather in the lame and bring together the strays and those whom I have treated harshly. From the footsore I shall make a remnant, and from the far-flung a mighty nation. And Yahweh will reign over them on Mount Zion thenceforth and for ever.

The date 1967 returns the entire city of Jerusalem to Israel fulfilling other biblical prophecies indicating the end of a long period given to the Gentiles :

Zechariah 2:12 .."The LORD will possess Judah as His portion in the holy land, and will again choose Jerusalem.

Luke 21:24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

Gregorian Year 2017 Hebrew Year 5-777

indicates an expiration important period biblical as the 50 , 70, 100 and 120

Leviticus 25:10 ...10And ye shall hallow the Fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubile unto you; and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family.

Numbers 8:25 ... And from the age of Fifty years they shall cease waiting upon the servicethereof, and shall serve no more..

Psalms 90:10 ...As for the days of our life, they contain Seventy years, Or if due to strength, eighty years, Yet their pride is {but} labor and sorrow; For soon it is gone and we fly away.

Daniel 9:2 ... In the first year of his reign I Daniel understood by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish Seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.

Isaiah 61:2-7 "To proclaim the year of the Lord's favor the year of Jubilee... instead of your shame you will receive a double portion.." Hundred years

Genesis 6:3 ... And the LORD said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be An Hundred and Twenty years.

Matthew 24:1-3 ...And Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple. And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?

Matthew 24:32-34 ...Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh: So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors. Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.

The generation which Christ refers to lasts 70 years (Psalm 90:10) since the Temple was destroyed in 70 A.D. With the cessation of the priesthood and the beginning of the diaspora also the historical State of Israel officially ceased to exist. In the Bible the fig tree represents the nation of Israel (Hosea 9:10; Jeremiah 24:5), so by the time the Messiah comes the Israel-fig will have been reviving for 70 years the period of a generation: 1947/48 – 2017/18

Rabbi Judah ben Samuel's Jubilee Prophecy gives the Year of the Messiah

Rabbi Judah ben Samuel (1140-1217)

It was in the year of 1217 CE that one of Judah's most legendary and prolific German Hassidic rabbis made an astounding prediction about the future of Jerusalem and the coming of the Messiah. Known as Judah ben Samuel (Judah He-Hasid or Judah the Pious, he lived in the 12th and 13th century in Regensburg, Germany.

Born in Speyer in 1140, Rabbi ben Samuel died in February 22, 1217 in Regensburg. He was one of the fathers of Chassidei (Hassidic Judaism), a movement of Jewish mysticism in Germany different than Rabbi Lurias Kabbalistic mysticism, where the Chassids emphasized strong moral ethics and prayer. When Rabbi Judah HeHasid settled in Regensburg at the age of 55, it was here that he wrote his seminal books; the Sefer Hasidim (Book of the Pious), Sefer Gematriyot (a book on astrology) and Sefer Hakavod (Book of Glory). The latter book is now lost and few quotations have remained by subsequent authors. These years were the time of the Roman Christian crusades into the Holy Land between the years of 1096-1270. During that time also a flourishing correspondence was carried back and forth from Jerusalem and the Holy Land and Europe rabbis in Worms and Regensburg in Germany. It was in these letters that they knew about Saladin the Great and Saladin's Sunni Ayyubid Dynasty in Egypt.

It was in this year that Rabbi Judah ben Samuel began publishing his biblical calculations called the Gematria, plus his astronomical observations a gave us this summary which we can read today.

Rabbi Judah ben Samuel - "When the Ottomans (Turks) – who were already a power to be reckoned with on the Bosphorus in the time of Judah Ben Samuel – conquer Jerusalem they will rule over Jerusalem for eight jubilees. Afterwards Jerusalem will become no-man's land for one jubilee, and then in the tenth jubilee it will once again come back into the possession of the Jewish nation – which would signify the beginning of the Messianic end time."

According to Leviticus 25, one Jubilee period is 50 years in which the 50th year, each person will regain ownership of his or her tribal lands. As Rabbi Judah the Pious looked into the future, he was postulating theoretical calculations, which today are showing them to be amazingly accurate. It would be over 300 years after his death that his first prediction would become true.

During the Roman Christian Crusades, the Mamluk began their reign in Jerusalem in the year of 1250 CE when the last Ayyubid Sultan of Egypt, Turanshah was assassinated by his Mamluk slave General Aibek. Aibek then founded the Mamluk Bahri dynasty. They held power over Jerusalem until they were conquered by the Ottoman Turks in the year of 1517, three hundred years after the death of Rabbi Judah ben Samuel.

According to Rabbi Judah he-Hasid, the Ottoman Turks would later wrestle power and control over the Middle East and assume power and control over Jerusalem. They would control the Land of Palestine and Jerusalem for eight Jubilees, according to his predictive calculations.

The Ottoman Empire at its Peak

Well, eight Jubilees (50 years x 8 Jubilees) are 400 years. We know again by history that the Ottoman Turks gained control of Jerusalem in the year 1517 and held power over Jerusalem for 400 years, when they were conquered in 1917, by the British military forces under the command of British military General Edmund Allenby on Hanukkah, December 17, 1917. The Ottoman Turks began to falter in 1918 after the defeat of the army at Jerusalem. The city of Damascus fell on October 1, Homs on October 16, and Aleppo on October 25 and Turkey capitulated on October 30, 1918. After this date the League of Nations conferred the Turkey, Syria, and Egypt to the British Mandate that included the Land of Israel, then called Palestine, and Jerusalem to the British.

Then the prophecy continues when it states; "Afterwards Jerusalem will become no-man's land for one jubilee." Is it not amazing that from the year of 1917 when the British Mandate controlled the city of Jerusalem, Jerusalem did become under international law a "no-man's land for one jubilee". It was fifty years after that year in 1917, that the Israeli army captured the city of Jerusalem in the Six Day War on June 17, 1967. Exactly one Jubilee, 50 years later, Jerusalem returned for the first time to the control of the Jewish-Israeli ownership since the day when Jerusalem was destroyed in 70 CE.

Called the "Light of Israel", Rabbi Ben Samuel truly was a "Light to the World". He did not discriminate against anyone who wanted to learn from him. Even the Roman Catholic bishops sought his wisdom. His students were some of the Torah scholars of the ages. According to his pupils Rabbi Isaac ben Moses (Vienna), Rabbi Baruch ben Samuel (Mainz) and Rabbi Simcha (Speyer), Rabbi Judah the Pious was a model in his role of strict abstinence selflessness and of service to other. His burning desire was awaiting the coming of the Messiah.

When he was asked where he received his wisdom from, his answer was:

Rabbi Judah ben Samuel – "The prophet Elijah, who will precede the Messiah, appeared to me and revealed many things to me and emphasized that the precondition for answered prayer is that it is fueled by enthusiasm and joy for the greatness and holiness of God."

As we read the studies of this great man of G-d, and review his finding in all their simplicity and accuracy, we stand amazed today. In review, just before 1217 CE, this rabbinic sage and giant of Israel made the amazing prediction that the "Ottoman Turks would rule over the holy city of Jerusalem for eight Jubilees."

Unknown to Rabbi Judah ben Samuel, the first known reference of the "Ottomans" was in 1215 CE, just two years before he died. The Ottomans were a Turkish speaking tribe that was first ruled by Ertugrul in the land of Anatolia. His rule continued to ascend in power as the Seljuk Turkish Empire decayed. Ertugrul's son, Osman, became the name-sake "father of the Ottoman Turks" for his name was corrupted in Europe as Ottoman".

Famous public photo of dismounted General Sir Edmund Allenby entering the Holy City of Jerusalem on foot on Hanukkah on December 11, 1917 to show respect for holy place.

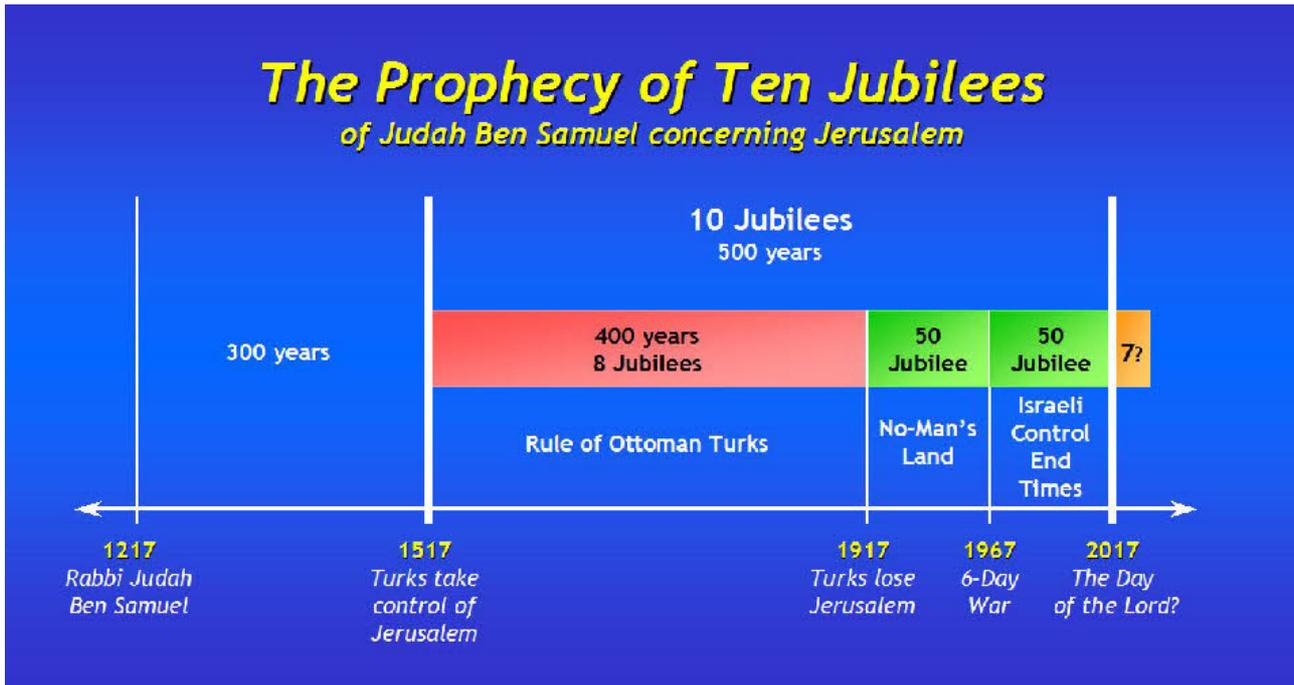

The Ottomans expanded to Nicaea (present-day Iznik) and then went over the Dardanelles in 1362. Almost ninety years later, the Ottoman ruler Mehmed II conquered the Byzantine Imperial capital, Constantinople (Istanbul) in the year of 1453. Eventually the Ottomans ruled over most of the Balkans, the Fertile Crescent and Egypt included the forsaken land of Palestine.

This empire lasted until after World War II, but the Holy Land and Jerusalem were taken possession of in the year of 1917 by the British General Edmund Allenby on Hanukkah, December 17, 1917. Of personal interest, one of my relatives sent a personal account of the Battle of Jerusalem by the British forces under the command of General Edmund Allenby. As written:

Geoffrey – “The story of Jerusalem and General Allenby, which I remember my Grandfather telling me was about the time when Allenby halted the British Army some twenty miles away from the great city and sent a telegram directly to King George V. saying: “I will not fire British Guns on G-D’s City” signed Allenby. Apparently, the King wired him back with one word “PRAY!” And the next day the Turks left without a shot being fired and Allenby led the British Army into Jerusalem.

We survived the German Occupation of the Channel Islands, because we knew who we were – values had been handed down, we were British! We knew right from wrong! And we would, no matter how bad things could become and they did, win the war. Today, we can clearly see that society has forgotten to hand those core values.”

The Prophecy of Ten Jubilees of Judah Ben Samuel concerning Jerusalem

As Judah ben Samuel predicted the years of 1217 and 1517 were recognized as the biblical 50 year Jubilee Years. Three hundred years of six Jubilees after 1217, the Ottoman Turks took control of Jerusalem until its fading years when the Allied Forces swept the last ruler of the Ottoman from power by the forces of the British military troops under the command of General George Allenby in 1917. Even after the Declaration of Independence by Israel in May 15, 1948 and Israel's War of Independence against five Islamic nations, the city of Jerusalem still remained a "divided city". The Jordanian government controlled the eastern part of Jerusalem including the Temple Mount and the Old City of Jerusalem. A strip of land divided the State of Israel control of Western Jerusalem and the Jordanian controlled East Jerusalem. This strip of land was called "The No-Man's Land" by both Israelis and Jordanians.

Then in the year of 1967, Israel was once again attacked. After the Six Day War, on June 17, 1967, the entire region of the West Bank was conquered by the Israeli Army and the entire city of Jerusalem returned back in possession of the Jewish people. Seven hundred and fifty years after the prophecy was first made by Rabbi Judah the Pious, from 1217 to 1967, all the conditions of the prophecy were fulfilled to the letter of the prophetic oracle. Then Rabbi Judah heHasid wrote:

Rabbi Judah heHasid – "In the ninth jubilee Jerusalem will once again come back into the possession of the Jewish nation – which will signify the beginning of the Messianic end time."

This leaves one more Jubilee, the tenth Jubilee since the Ottoman Turks took control of Jerusalem and the Land of Promise in the years of 1517. According to this Jewish sage, the end of tenth Jubilee, started in 1967 and will end in 2017, will signify "the beginning of the Messianic end time".

Jewish Feast of Rosh Hashanah or the Jewish New Year

Now a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet and a crown of twelve stars on her head . She was pregnant and cried out in her pangs and anguish of childbirth.

Revelation 12:1-2

In the image below , just extraordinarily September 23rd, 2017 you will see the alignment of stars and planets like Saturn , Moon, Earth, Jupiter, Sun, Mercury, Mars, Venus and the star Regulus, which means king.

The constellation of Virgo on its feet will be the Moon ... right between its legs you will find the planet Jupiter considered the king of the planets for its size ... The constellation of Virgo, around will be illuminated by the Sun in fact you will not see in during the daylight, and on its head there will be twelve stars. Nine stars of the constellation of Leo which also depicts the tribe of Judah or the King Messiah, plus three planets Venus, Mars and Mercury from the earth shine like stars forming the twelve stars on the head of the Virgin which itself is also formed by twelve stars !

So we will be a fulfillment in astronomical form of Revelation 12!
